M'KINLEY MEMORIAL DAY

Ohio Governor Names January 29 for Observance.

COMMISSIONERS TAKE

ACTION.

District Citizens Called Upon to Celebrate Day and to Contribute to Monument Fund.

The District Commissioners have received a letter from Mr. William R. Day, of Canton, Ohio, enclosing a communication from Gov. George K. Nash, of that State, suggesting the observance of January 29 as McKinley Day.

The date mentioned is the fifty-ninth anniversary of the birth of William Me-Kinley, and it is proposed by Governor Nash to celebrate the day with appropriate exercises throughout the State and the United States, and especially by making contributions to the memorial fund to erect a monument at the grave of the late President in Canton.

and now president of the McKinley Naple of the District of Columbia to observe the day here.

After consulting with Secretary Cortelyou, who represents the District of Columbia on the board of trustees of the McKinley Memorial Association, the Comdecided to issue a statement calling the attention of the citizens of the District to the request, and inviting them to observe the day in an approprinte manner, as well as to contribute to the fund of the McKinley National Me-

Remittances to Cleveland.

As there is no local branch of the Mc Kinley National Memorial Association in the District of Columbia, it is the desire of the association that remittances be made directly to Myron T. Herrick, treasurer, Cleveland, Ohio.

DENIED BY GENERAL WOODFORD.

Ex.Minister to Spain Saw No British Animosity.

LONDON, Jan. 24.-The Washington correspondent of the "Standard" says that General Woodford, formerly American Minister to Spain has written a letter which will shortly be published, in which "It is quite possible that Queen Victoria, herself a widow, wrote kindly and sympathetically to Spain's widowed Queen, who was making so brave and patient a struggle to save her son's crown and preserve his territorial heritage unimpaired; but I do not believe that Queen Victoria or the British Government ever did, said or wrote anything unfriendly to the United States or prejudicial to our inter-sts in connection with Spanish affairs.

"By referring to the United States diplomatic correspondence you will see that the British Ambascador called off me at San Sebastian before I had been officially presented to the Spanish Government. From their until I asked for my passports and turned over the care of American interests to the British Charge d'Af-faires, the British Government, as far as it came within my knowledge, was uniformly considerate, kind, and friendly."

AFTER THE HOUNDS AND INTO THE DITCH

Wet Grounds Bad for Chevy Chase Field.

MASTER OF THE PACK HAS FALL

With the geing fetlock deep, owing to the recent heavy rains, the Chevy Chase Hounds were out on Wednesday afternoon, meeting at Chevy Chase Circle at 3 o'clock, with Mr. Clarence Moore, M. F. H., on Lord Craven, in charge of the field.

Although the number in the saddle was River, at Boston. not as large as at most of the previous Mr. Olney also called to pay his re-runs, there was a goodly following out to spects upon the President, and at the enjoy a gallop across country, all keen for the sport. The wet condition of the ground made careful riding an absolute necessity, and even care did not prevent several riders from coming "croppers."

Master of Hounds Has a Fall.

The first to feel the ground was the master of hounds, whose horse made a nasty slip at the first jump, putting both horse and rider down; however, doing no greater damage than giving them a good set in the banquet hall of the Ebbitt House | coating of mud. Both were quickly up and at the fore again. Later in the run Mr. Frank Caroline master of hounds of the Burlingame Hunt of California, also came down. Outside of a slight shaking up he was in no way damaged, and, mounting, finished well up in the first flight.

Hunters in the Saddle. Others in the saddle besides those mentioned were Mrs. W. H. Chatfield-Taylor, Miss Dovie, of Asheville, N. C.; Mr. John S. Larcombe, jr., on Jacobel; Mr. Chester Kerr, on Lamoon; Mr. Roger Wetmore, on Ratler; Mr. Carey, on Calif, and the full complement of hunt servants. Altegether there were about twenty out.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DUDLEY.

Services Held at Residence of Gen eral Breckinridge Yesterday,

Funeral services over the remains Mrs. Mary Scott Dudley were held at the residence of her son-in-law, Gen. Joseph C. Breckinridge, 1314 Connecticut Avenue, yesterday. Dr. Radcliffe, of the New York

Avenue Church, officiated.
Owing to the severe illness of Mrs.
Breckinridge's youngest son, the services were necessarily private and quite brief. The palibearers were relected from among the employes of the Inspector General's Office and Headquarters of the Army. The remains, accompanied by mem-bers of the family, were sent to Lexing-ton, Ky. More extended funeral services will be held there, where the intermen

TOILETTES OF THE LADIES.

Beautiful Costumes Worn by the Feminine Guests. Mrs. Roosevelt wore over a skirt of faintest pink satin a robe of white lace, the flowers spangled in silver. The front was draped with a garland of pink roses on pink satin ribbon, and a pink rose was fastened in her hair. Around her throat was a necklace of diamonds in aunburs design, and she carried a bouquet of pink reses and ferns. Mrs. Root was in black lace over white satin, with which she wore a necklace of diamonds and a diamond and turquoise ornament in the laces of her low bodice.

lewels Mrs. Payne, the wife of the new Post-master General, who made her official master General, who made her official debut in the receiving line, was attired in white gauze, jeweled in scroll design, with spangles of dark but vivid blue. This ex-quisite robe was worn over gleaming white satin. Mrs. Payne has a very beautiful neck, which was adorned with a simple band of black velvet.

Mrs. Hitchcock was in her favorite color, lavender, of rich satin, the seams outlined with silver passementerle. The corsage was garlanded with orchids, and she wore diamonds about her neck and in the laces of her corsage.

Miss Wilson was in a rich cream white satin with a full of lace defining the low-cut bodice and a shoulder cluster of blos-soms tied with narrow white satin rib-bons that fell to the edge of her skirt. Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, of New York who was among the especially invited guesta in the Blue Parlor, wore a sweeping train of light blue velvet, with a bodice garniture of old ivory tinted lace. Around her neck was a dog collar of large diamonds, with ropes of diamonds and emeralds that almost covered her neck. A white aigrette was fastened to her hair by a fleur de lis of splendid gems.

Mrs. Logan, who was also behind the line, was gowned with quiet elegance in black satin and lace, with a black plu in her hair. Miss Alice Rogsevelt were a very pretty tollette of white mousseline de so white satin and ber hair was tied with white ribbon.
